ALL ROUNDER.

When I was born, my family has already had a dog. It was a 6 months old German Shepherd male imported from Germany. Since that moment my life has been inseparable from dogs.

As a teenager I started breeding German Shepherds, and then later bred Dobermanns. At different times a Belgian Shepherd, Middle Asian Sheepdogs, a Pharaoh Hound, a Pug and even a mongrel lived in my house. For last several years my wife and I have had Labradors. All the dogs I ever had were on top of the world show scene achieving significant results. However, over the last several years, I had to reduce my show and breeding activities due to business and judging duties. I'm an electronic engineer and a professional journalist as well. I was a chief editor of "The Dog's Life" magazine for a long time and now work as a chief editor of a cynological section in "The Pet Planet" magazine about animals.

I'm an International judge for all breeds. Also I'm a working trial judge for Agility, IPO, SchH, Obedience and Hunting dogs.

I was fortunate enough to judge on all the continents for many times and almost in all European countries. Each year I have about 30 – 40 shows both all-breed and specialties.
