

MRS LILIANE DE RIDDER - ONGHENA

Started in 1966 with dalmatians, together with her husband Frans DE RIDDER. Under this prefix she was showing and breeding a nice number of champions. Later on some Irish Wolfhound and deerhounds joined the team.

Took about 20 years ago a serious interest in a Belgian breed: Brussels Griffons, especially the smooth haired variety (Petit Brabançon).

We still have a nice collection of dogs at home: 1 dalmatian – 1 podengo portugues – 2 petit brabançons and one Brussels Griffon. We don't show any longer, but just having these wonderful dogs around you give great fun as well.

Has a world famous fine art porcelain collection of all kind of Dalmatian figurines, a result of selective search for more than 40 years.

Judged on all continents and was honoured at different Worldshows to judge her beloved breeds.

Is the editor for more than 30 years of "Spots of News" of the Belgian Dalmatian Club and actually is keeping the position of secretary as well. Was a founding committee member of the Belgian Junior Handling Club.

Was a founding committee member of the Belgian Irish Wolfhound Club and was their first chairman. Is also the chairman of the Belgian Chihuahuaclub for many years.

Is a member of the Standard commission of the Belgian Kennel Club (SRSH).
