

Štefan Šinko

Allrounder frá Slóveníu

FCI all breeds judge, regularly invited to all parts of the world. Mr Sinko started breeding and showing Bulldogs in 1979 and established the Jubilee Bulldog kennel. He has raised many national and international champions including FCI, European, and world winner Bulldogs. He has owned: Great Danes, Airedale Terriers, Basset Hounds, Dogo Argentine. Mr Sinko has judged at championship show level since 1986 on all continents, in total in 65 countries. He has judged prestigious shows including FCI European and World shows. In 2004 he judged Bulldogs at Crufts with a total entry of 210 exhibits, and has judged at the Brisbane Royal, and in Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide. From 1992 until 1997 he was the first democratically elected President of the Slovenian Kennel Club, foundation president of the Slovenian Molosser and big sized Breeds Club and the Slovenian Terrier Club. In the FCI from 1994 until 1996 he was vice president of the FCI judges committee, and at present is honorary president of several clubs.