I was born in 1941 and had a career as a professional Officer in the Belgian Army. Since my childhood I always had dogs, but it was only in 1978 that I started with my own kennel. I first bred Labrador Retrievers (originating from well-known English bloodlines) and afterwards Miniature Dachshunds Longhair. My kennel name was KELBY'S. I had very good results with my dogs and several new kennels in Belgium started with Labradors which I bred. I became a judge in 1986 for Labrador retrievers and since then I got qualified for +/- 200 breeds. At this moment I judge +/- 30 times a year in nearly all the countries of Europe. My judging appointments brought me in Europe to Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Russia, Estonia, Latvia, Poland, Ukraine, Belarus, Czech, Greece, Slovakia, Hungary, Croatia, Slovenia, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, France, Luxemburg, Germany, Holland and of course Belgium. I also judged in Australia. During all these years I was involved in several breed clubs and for several years I was the responsible for inviting show-judges for the International Dog show of Lommel in Belgium. Besides this I'm also Vice-President of the Belgian Kennel Club and Vice-President of the Judges Commission.
